

45th Running of the High Hope Steeplechase – May 20, 2012

ARTS AND CRAFTS FAIR

We welcome your participation in the 45th running of the High Hope Steeplechase! Our event is a day for family, friends, great racing and shopping! The Arts and Crafts area is a special part of the day when people can take time out from the races and shop for great creations from our exhibitors.

The day's events start out with Jack Russell dog races just before noon continuing on until the Steeplechase races begin at 1:30. This event is a big day for families and friends to get together by way of tailgating around the course. Businesses acquire corporate tents to entertain clients. The wonderful Member's Pavillion includes food and drink for a very modest price. The crowd keeps increasing every year.

The High Hope Steeplechase benefits equine charities in the Bluegrass, including Central Kentucky Riding for Hope and The Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation.
